TIM BURNS IS GUILTY

The Jury Reached a Decision at Two O'Clock.

WERE OUT ALMOST ALL NIGHT

Then the Accused Had Gone Home and They Had to Wait Again—The Verdict Read This Morning, But Sentence Will Not be Given Until Tomorrow.

When the case of Tim Burns went to the jury last night it was six o'clock, and the crowd lingered near in the hope of obtaining a verdict before going home to supper, but they didn't know the jury. The first hour thinned out the crowd, the second exhausted it, and the third left only a few interested parties waiting for the result. Meantime the jury had been balloting, the first vote showing eight for conviction. The four stood out for a time, and then two came over to the majority, but the others could not be induced to change their views. Although the jurors wanted to go home, and were spending all their available cash for lunch, they stayed manfully by their opinion. They had the privilege of running around city hall at will, and Mr. Black threatened all sorts of things in consequence, but his words had no effect. The jurors heeded him no more than if he did not exist. Burns disappeared early in the evening, and was not present when the jury at 2 o'clock decided on a verdict. This was only reached after the members in favor of conviction had, as one expressed it "ripped them up in great shape." They could not see why Burns should be convicted, but were shown the points in law so well that they decided to vote with the majority. The number of votes taken was 22, the last being unanimous for the city. When the jury entered the room Mayor Gilbert was there, but Burns had not yet returned. The officers were sent out to hunt for him, but after an hour and a half's search reported that he could not be found. Then the verdict was sealed, and given to the foreman, John Kerr, who presented it to the court this morning.

At the appointed hour this morning the jury were in their places and the verdict was read. The verdict not only found Burns guilty, but recommended leniency. Before the mayor could pronounce sentence Attorney Black asked the privilege of arguing a motion for a new trial tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock, and was given permission to appear. He wants a trial before the mayor without the formality of a jury. The costs in the case now amount to $55.36, the minimum fine under the ordinance is $25 and the maximum is $100. The state law is even more severe, and a jail sentence goes with both, but it is at the option of the judge.

THE TRIAL.

How Burns Was Prosecuted and Defended.

After the NEWS REVIEW report closed yesterday, Officer Frank Earle was sworn. Have known Burns ten years. Burns' saloon is on east side of Walnut street; are two rooms down stairs, kitchen and bar; steps lead from bar upstairs; was there last Sunday, with Jennings; went through kitchen and upstairs; found three men there beside Burns; two bottles of beer and three glasses on table; one of the men had a glass and Heakins said "as we are caught I may as well drink it."

Smith wanted this stricken out as incompetent but the mayor over ruled it and exception noted. The door was not locked. Burns' wife was standing in yard when I arrived and she ran inside. (Defense objected to testimony, overruled objection.) As I was going upstairs Mrs. Burns hollered "Police, Tim." Door to bar was not locked; Jennings opened it. I was there November last; (objection overruled. Exception noted.) I saw liquors dealt out in the upstairs room then; (objection overruled: exception noted.) No change in location of affairs since then; (objection and exception.) Have been there at other times but not upstairs.

Clark asked Earle if he had anything else to say. He said he had not and defense objected; overruled and exception noted. Fifteen distinct questions were objected to by defense, overruled and exception noted.

Cross examination by Black: "Came to Salineville in fall of '77; Burns was a coal digger; have been here 9 or 10 years; saw parties going into Burns' house last Sunday.

Black: "Where were you then?"

Earle: "That's another story."

After some argument. "We were in the pressing shop of Knowles' pottery; could see Burns' place very plainly; they went in the back gate; I climbed over the fence along the kitchen. Farrish and Blakely were the parties I saw go in; I did not run, but walked rather sharply; Jennings went over the gate first; I didn't help him as I know of; saw Mrs. Burns in kitchen; don't think we spoke; Jennings went to the bar while I went to the stairs; don't know whether bar door was latched.

Black then became rather personal, asking if Earle's child had not died the night after he drank in Burns' place last November. Earle said it was the Monday night after and told Black to "bring out all the dirt he could. He didn't care."

Black—Earle, you've been making quite a record for pulling saloons since you went on the force, have'nt you? One saloon each Sunday, eh?

Earle—Yes sir, and I'll do it a thousand more Sundays if I can.

Then Black's remarks and questions became so personal that the mayor suggested that they put the two in a room together. Earle said he was willing. Further cross examination showed that the Monday when Earle's child died was Nov. 5, the day after he had been in the saloon, and consequently it was another case of Sunday selling.

Officer Jennings was called and testified as follows: Was in Burns' saloon last Sunday; rooms same as Earle described; bar room door was latched, and I opened it; went up stairs and found the three men there and they had beer; Heakin said "Well you've catched me, and I might as well drink it." Smith again objected but it was overruled.

Cross examination by Smith—I climbed over the gate because it was fastened with a stick inside; Mrs. Burns ran as soon as she saw me on top of the gate; I pushed the door rather vigorously and Mrs. Burns pushed the other way; when it opened she stepped back; I was not excited.

Smith—Didn't you upset her against the cooking stove?

Jennings—No sir.

Smith—Have you a right to go into any kitchen in town except your own without a warrant?

Jennings—Yes sir; every place where the law is being violated.

Smith—Had you any orders from the mayor to go to Burns'?

Jennings—No sir, nor anybody else.

Mr. Smith then read section 250 of the codified ordinances, paragraph 19, which says that members of the police force shall not enter a saloon while on duty except when so instructed by mayor and marshal in each case, or when called upon to quell a disturbance. This law not to be constructed so as to permit of entering such places for general observation. In case they enter any saloon or place where liquor is sold a warrant must be procured. Officer Jennings said he had no warrant, but suspected that something was wrong.

Alfred Heakin testified that he was in Burns' saloon last Sunday and secured liquor, but on the Saturday afternoon before they had 12 bottles; Charles Parker bought the beer but he did not drink any of it; was in the habit of so doing; "only five of us go there but can take friends if we want to; we keep the beer in a big lard can, with ice around it in a clothes press; we have the room private and pay the rent for it; when the officers came in I said: "Here's a looking at you," and drank my beer. Police told me to come down at 9 o'clock Monday morning, and I said all right; don't know how long I was in there; may be 20 minutes; went in by back gate.

Cross examination by Black—we pay Burns rent for that room; never saw anybody else taking liquor in that room on Sunday.

William Blakeley—Saw Farrish and Heakins about 2 o'clock last Sunday; was just sitting in the room when the officers appeared; I don't pay anything on the room; don't belong to the crowd; that was the first time I was there; either Burns or Heakins got the beer from the closet; Burns was sitting on the bench. The witness was not cross-examined.

Farrish called—Was in the room with Heakin and Blakeley; am a member of the club; the others are Edward Tolbert, Isaac Eoff, Charles Parker and Alfred Hakins; we use the room and go to it when we please; drinking is the main object we have in view; we buy from Burns all the liquor we take up there; the secretary bought the beer; think he bought it on Saturday night; might have bought it on Sunday.

Cross-examined by Black—Burns has no control of the room at all; we get there through the back gate; can get in the front on week days; Parker is the secretary; he buys it and we pay him; I have bought from Burns myself.

Cross-examined by Clark—Mrs. Burns sweeps the place; she or her husband can get in there at any time.

The defense made a motion to take

SMITH HAD AN ORDER

But the Court Fined Thompson Just the Same.

ROY RINEHART ALSO IN IT

They Were Indicted For Selling Liquor to a Minor, But the Court Would Not Accept a Written Order From the Boy's Father as Grounds For Acquittal.

Special to the NEWS REVIEW.

LISBON, May 23—William Thompson, a Liverpool saloonist, and his son-in-law Roy Rinehart, were in common pleas court this morning on charges of selling liquor to a minor. The defense showed that the youth in question was Harry S. Smith, and he had a written order from his father for the saloonist to sell him liquor whenever he came for it. This was presented in court, but had no effect upon the result and Thompson was fined $40 and costs while Rinehart got $10 and costs on each of two indictments. The case attracted unusual attention about the court house because of the novelty of the defense.

J. McGoogin, a Lisbon saloonist, was tried before a jury this morning for selling to a minor, and the evidence recalled the tragic death of James Straley at the tin mill a few days ago. McGoogin was accused as the man who sold Straley liquor the night before he was killed, and although a strong effort was made to clear him the jury did not consume a great time in declaring him guilty. He was not sentenced.

AN ANSWER.

A Manufacturer Scores the Defamers of Homer Laughlin.

Editor NEWS REVIEW:

DEAR SIR—There very recently appeared an article in the Crisis attacking Homer Laughlin. It seemed to me to be so unfair and full of venom that I deem it my duty, both to Mr. Laughlin and also to this community, to say that to one who has set the pace for the manufacturers of East Liverpool, as well as the entire country, that anything pertaining to the trade coming from so high an authority as Mr. Laughlin should be listened to with respect, even though we may not agree with him. To no man is East Liverpool particularly indebted for the high place it holds in the estimation of the trade more than Homer Laughlin. He has shown all of us what can be done, and were the balance of the potters in this city possessed of more of the ability which he has undoubtedly shown in the production of his goods it would be a very good thing for the business, and there would today be less idle hands than there are. He has somehow had the shrewdness to have had his goods well made, and wherever the name of East Liverpool is known as a potting center there you will find the name of Homer Laughlin standing first and foremost. This ought to be a very pleasing thing to think of to all of us, and we should strive to follow his example and try and get the same good reputation he has. My interests and that of Mr. Laughlin have nothing in common, but in justice to one who has done so much for all of us I give this tribute to him from a brother manufacturer.

MAY BE A NEW LAW.

An Ordinance Proposed For the Abolition of Saloon Club Rooms.

Solicitor Clark veiled his meaning in mystery yesterday when he remarked that "the Burns liquor case was not being decided for temperance societies or liquor leagues," but he explained it to a NEWS REVIEW reporter today.

"I meant," said Mr. Clark, "that the Liquor Dealers' association were backing Burns in his fight against the city. Do you know the reason why? Well, it is simply because they feared a verdict of guilty would mean that a stand was accordingly taken against all saloons with club rooms attached, and that an ordinance will be passed abolishing all such resorts."

"Will such an ordinance be prepared soon?" queried the reporter.

"In all probability it will," replied Mr. Clark.

As there are about 12 such club rooms in the city, it can be easily seen that the liquor men could well afford to back the legal contest with hard cash.

THEIR HOME BURNED.

A Family of Eleven Lose All Their Possessions In Flames.

News has been received here of the burning of a farm house and barn which destroyed all the earthly possessions of John McGaffick, and left him, his wife and nine children homeless. The McGaffick family resided on a farm about a mile north of Smith's Ferry owned by John Ravl, Union street, this city. Mrs. McGaffick discovered that a blaze had started in the roof from a defective flue while her husband was in the cornfield at work. He was summoned and had his face severely burned in an effort to extinguish the blaze. He was unsuccessful and the house was soon in ashes. The family lost all except the clothes they wore. The fire was fanned by a breeze from the south and in a few minutes, the big barn, 100 feet distant, was in flames and burned to the ground. The family were tendered the use of Clark Thompson's house nearby and accepted it gladly.

The loss on his goods, $400, is a severe blow to Mr. McGaffick as he had no insurance on them. The loss on the house is $1,000 and on the barn $500. Mr. McGaffick is a brother-in-law of John Mason, employed with Crook & McGraw, this city. Henry Spear lost a house near the McGaffick place two weeks ago.

MARRIED THREE TIMES

And the Third Restored Her to Her Maiden Name.

An East End lady last night was married for the third time in seven years and strangely enough in conformity with the saying that the third time takes the charm, this wedding restored her to her maiden name.

She was formerly Miss Delcina Hackathorne, daughter of George Hackathorne, Railroad street, and her name is now Mrs. Benjamin Hackathorne. She was first married to Will Henderson, a Pennsylvania man, who died several years ago with consumption. Husband No. 2 was Hiram Lockhart and it was not long after their marriage until he had passed away. A widow for some time Mrs. Lockhart lived in East End with her children, and it was no surprise when last night it was announced that Benjamin Hackathorne a local cooper would be the man of the house. The wedding ceremony was performed at 8 o'clock by Squire Rose, and the bride will now have ample opportunity to explain to her unenlightened friends that she has not been divorced and restored to her maiden name, but simply married the third time. The youthful contingent tendered Mr. and Mrs. Hackathorne one of their usual serenades.

WILL GO DEEP.

The Jolly Company Giving the Oil Field a Test.

The rig for the well in the oil field over the river will be finished today, and the drill will be started early next week. The Jolly company located another well yesterday, and expect to have the derrick built at once. It has been decided to drill into the Smith's Ferry sand, and if they find nothing there the drill will go to the next, and as a last resort they will go to the Gordon sand, 2,200 to 2,500 feet below the surface. They feel confident that the search will be successful. Four wells will be drilled.

Champion Rat Killers.

Some of the boys about the Hotel Grand are winning fame in the line of rat killing by means other than electrocution. Each night sees a half dozen armed with brooms and clubs lock themselves in a room and then poke the rodents from their lairs. The dancing about as a particularly large rat comes too close to some boy's trouser leg is amusing, but perhaps the funniest scare was when one of the gang rolled a potato across the floor the other night. It struck the ringleader on the leg and he leaped about three feet in the air, emitting a yell that would turn Pawnee Bill's Indians green with envy. He thought that rat had nabbed him, and his fears could not be quieted until the monster was laid low.

More Precautions.

Owing to a smallpox scare at Wheeling and Cincinnati the marine surgeon at Pittsburg, Dr. Eugene Wasdin, has been notified to examine all rivermen and vaccinate those needing it. Six hundred men have so far been examined, and 200 vaccinated. More than 1,000 Pittsburg boatmen will be inspected. The law is compulsory, and the men cannot leave port nor sail on the river without passing examination. At New Orleans the law is being rigidly enforced at present. Doctor Stoner inspected the rivermen three years ago.

Came Home This Morning.

T. L. Potts returned this morning from a southern trip in the interests of the Union Pottery and will not allow any jokes on the condition of trade.

Preparing to Picnic.

The Greenleaf society are preparing to hold a picnic, and although the date has not been set it will be soon.

THE BIG CLOCK IS HERE

It Came Packed in Eleven Boxes.

AN EXPERT WILL PUT IT UP

Before Long its Hands Will Show the Time and the Bell Will Sound the Hour. It Will be Hauled to the School Building Today.

The big clock purchased by the school board, after the NEWS REVIEW had made numerous suggestions and urged a movement on this line, arrived in the city last night and attracted attention at the freight depot this morning.

The clock is packed in 11 cases, and the weights, four in number, are also a part of the shipment. It was made at Thomaston, Conn., by the Seth Thomas company, whose clocks are scattered through every part of the union. It is a tower clock of the most approved design, and none better can be found anywhere. The dials are in accordance with the rest of the clock, and will make a fitting appearance when placed in the tower of the building. Mr. Golding said this morning that the clock would be moved at once to the structure, and an expert will be sent here to place it in position. The contract with the company calls for the placing of it in position, and it is thought that the next few weeks will see the clock in working order.

East Liverpool Represented.

From the Ohio State Journal report of the Ohio Electric Light Association which met in Columbus on Tuesday, we find that F. H. Bostwick, the local manager, was given a position on the finance committee. The next meeting of the association will be held in Piqua in October. As stated in the NEWS REVIEW some few days since, the objects of the organization are to promote the common interests of the members and to advance the scientific and practical knowledge of members in all matters relative to electric light and power. Our county should be well represented. Plants are now operated in New Lisbon, Salem, Leetonia, Wellsville and East Liverpool. The last two named are already members.

Mrs. Henry Bevington Dead.

Margaret, wife of Carrier Henry Bevington, died at her home in Huston addition yesterday afternoon after a long illness with consumption, aged 40 years. Deceased was a highly respected Christian lady whose death is mourned by many. She leaves seven children, four sons and three daughters. Deceased was a member of the Church of Christ. The funeral will take place from the family residence at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon with interment in Spring Grove cemetery.

Here's Where the Lawyers Smile.

The new schedule of the Pennsylvania lines west of Pittsburg will do away with a crying evil. Parties desiring to go to Lisbon can now take the train at 8:10 o'clock, and making connection at Rochester can have the train held at Gallilee, so that they get to Lisbon within half a day. Until this plan was brought out by the railroad company it was necessary to leave here at five in the morning, which meant tiresome waits at both junctions.

Last Day of School.

Tomorrow the small boy will hug himself with glee, and all the students in the public schools will carry home their books and hide them from sight until next September. It is the last day of school and is welcomed no less by teachers than scholars. As usual there will be an observance of the day by literary exercises and singing, and the presentation of certificates of promotion or location as the fortunes of the scholars may be.

Saw the Show.

Engineer Joshua Curfman, of the central fire station, accompanied by his wife and son Will, went to Steubenville yesterday and visited friends until today. Josiah Hollingshead occupied the place of engineer during Mr. Curfman's absence.

Riding to Chicago.

W. Lancan, of Pittsburg, arrived here yesterday on his bicycle, and left this morning at 7:30 o'clock to resume his journey to Chicago. He was the guest of H. W. Bentv, Huston addition, during his stay here.

A Horse Stolen.

Notice has been received at local police headquarters of the theft of a dark bay horse from the barn of its owner, John VanEman, Hazel Dell, Pa. No reward, however, is offered.

"THE last of the Democrats" is not an impossibility as the name of a new novel next year.

IF the Democrats attempt to tax beer in order to make up the deficiency created by the loss of income tax revenue, the brewers will rise in a body, and there will be a lively fight before a dollar is collected.

THE congested condition of the country's finances must be relieved. The Wilson bill brought on the disease, yet a few of its friends believe the cause will eventually effect the cure. Was ever such reasoning heard before?

FOR THE PLATFORM.

The NEWS REVIEW agrees with the Cleveland Word that the following from a speech delivered by Governor McKinley at Minneapolis last year is good enough for a place in the Republican platform this year.

"A protective tariff, which shall serve the highest interests of American labor and American development; reciprocity, which, while seeking the world's markets for our surplus products, shall not destroy American wages, nor surrender American markets for products which can be made at home; the use of both gold and silver, with which to measure the exchanges of the people and cheat nobody; honest elections, which are the true source of public authority; the extension of our foreign commerce; the restoration of our merchant marine by home-built ships; the creation of a navy for the protection of our national interests and the honor of our flag; the maintainance of the most friendly relations with all foreign powers and entangling alliances with none; the reaffirmation of the Monroe doctrine, and of our faith in the achievement of the manifest destiny of the Republic as the best government of earth in the broadest and truest sense. Who would modify these principles; who would reverse this declared policy; who would strike from the Republican banner a single star or stripe? Like all Republican doctrines they are unchangeable. Upon them the Republican party bases its claim to future supremacy and impatiently awaits the constitutional opportunity to make its appeal to the people."

A Pleasant Occasion.

One of the most enjoyable occasions in the history of the Christian Endeavor of the Presbyterian West End chapel was the social and entertainment of last evening. The program was long; the excellence of the musical and elocutionary efforts was such as to shorten the hours. Among the principal features was the assistance lent by Secretary Morris, of the Young Men's Christian association. Ice cream and cake were served after the program, and the rest of the evening was spent in quiet enjoyment.

THE WAGE QUESTION.

Amalgamated Convention Considering It at Cleveland.

THE DELEGATES ARE DIVIDED.

The Ohioans Want a $4.50 or $5.00 Puddling Rate—Pittsburg Delegates In Favor of $4.00 Only—Members of the Standing Committees.

CLEVELAND, May 23.—The executive session followed the open meeting in the Amalgamated convention, and President Garland followed, reading his annual address. Then came the reports from the other officers and the appointment of the committees. The wage scale will probably be under discussion on its various schedules for ten days.

The sub-iron wage committee has made its report to the convention. Discussion upon the figures presented has been begun. Delegates from the Youngstown and Southern Ohio districts are very much in favor of increasing the puddling rate to $4.50 or $5 a ton, but the Pittsburg delegates, led by M. A. Carney, are working hard for an advance to $4 only.

Carney says that it would be suicidal to demand more than $4 in Pittsburg where the rate has been $3 to $3.60, nowhere so many mills have recently become non-union. Youngstown has been getting $4 right along, and, of course, wants to speedily bring the rate back to the old $5 a ton figure.

The steel wage committee is still at work, but prefers to wait until after the discussion on the iron wage schedule is completed before making a report. It seems at this stage that everything will hinge on the puddling price. The tin plate will remain undisturbed. The wire drawers will make a fight before the convention for the restoration of the 10 per cent cut, which was made a year and a half ago.

The following are the standing committees of the convention:

Iron Wage Committee—M. M. Garland, chairman; J. C. Kilgallon, secretary; Roger Evans, John Rebeck, Joseph Lavender, Edward Boland, John G. Schall, John Dashback, Daniel Mullane, Lawrence Kelly, J. D. Hickey, Oscar Watkins, David Llewellyn, Richard Morgan, Griff Davis, Thomas Hopkins, Edward Jones, Raymond Bauer, John D. Williams, Alexander Jones, James McClusky, W. S. Collier, J. W. Marshall.

Steel Wage Committee—W. A. Elliot, chairman; John Peel, John H. Campbell, T. J. Kelly, W. C. Davis, John Williamson.

President and Officers' Report—Joseph Hilton, chairman; Thomas Mason, Thomas Reese, Leopold Auberly, P. F. Murphy, Joseph Diggett, M. J. Deasce, Evan Lewis, William Bonehill, Simeon Smith, William Kelly, Richard Cooper, John Rebeck, John Dashback, Oscar Watkins, Richard Morgan, Raymond Bauer, James McClusky, Thomas Jeremiah.

Constitution and General Laws Committee—W. A. Carney, chairman; Walter J. Tormey, C. H. Miller, Patrick Madden, Thomas Carney, David Morgan, Daniel Humes, William Gardner, George Wood, J. L. Jackson, John Peel, T. J. Kelly, John Williamson, John G. Schall, Griff Davis, John D. Williams, E. T. Davis.

Auditing Committee—B. J. Davis, chairman; M. E. Welsh, William Barr, M. F. Tighe, William Davis, John Collins, D. Llewellyn.

Ways and Means and Appropriations—William Lane, chairman; John Williams, Richard Bannon, Fred Grable, A. J. Laughery, P. J. Carrigan, W. A. Clark, E. E. Stackhouse, James E. Oliver, Samuel Ball, M. E. Wims, Alexander McLaughlin, Joseph Lavender, Lawrence Kelly, Edward Jones, W. S. Collier, J. W. Marshall.

Secret Work—Reese W. Prosser, chairman; J. D. Hickey, W. A. Carney, Thomas Mason, David Llewellyn, P. M. McEvey, Thomas Hanly.

Mileage—Charles Kauffman, chairman; John Pierce, Daniel Mullane, Roger Evans.

Miners Too Poor to Resist.

LEAVENWORTH, Kan., May 23.—The Home-Riverside Coal and Mining company has posted notices that June 1 a reduction of 10 cents on the ton will be made in the price of mining, as well as a 10 to 15 per cent cut in the wages of all "company men," paid a stipulated sum per month. It is not probable that there will be a strike, as the men are too poorly situated.

G. A. R. Posts Will Not Attend.

GREEN BAY, Wis., May 23.—Commander-in-Chief Lawler of the G. A. R. says, concerning the Confederate monument at Chicago, "I do not object to the ex-Confederate soldiers erecting such a monument, but no Grand Army posts will participate in the dedicatory ceremonies."

THE U. P. ASSEMBLY.

United Presbyterians In Session at Pittsburg.

ELECTING A MODERATOR TODAY.

Rev. J. B. McMichael, D. D., President of Monmouth College, In the Lead. Seminary Control to Be a Leading Question—The Presbyterian Assembly.

PITTSBURG, May 23.—The general assembly of the United Presbyterian church opened in the Sixth United Presbyterian church, East End, last evening, with a public meeting, conducted by the retiring moderator, Rev. John A. Wilson, D. D., professor of church history in the Allegheny Theological seminary. Dr. Wilson preached the opening sermon of the assembly.

The election of a moderator is in progress today. The leading candidate is Rev. J. B. McMichael, D. D., president of Monmouth college, Monmouth, Ills. Rev. William G. Moorehead, D. D., of Xenia, O., is also a prominent candidate, Dr. Moorehead being one of the most scholarly men in the church. Among others mentioned for this distinguished position are: Rev. R. G. Wallace, D. D., of San Diego, Cal.; Rev. James G. Carson, D. D., of Xenia, O., and Rev. George McCormick of San Francisco.

The principal subject of interest which will come before the assembly is that of transfering the control of the theological seminaries from the synods to the assembly. While this question does not promise as heated a discussion as it received at the hands of the Presbyterian assembly, it will nevertheless prove a subject of great interest.

A question of much local interest will be that connected with the report of the board of publication. While plans are being rapidly pushed for the erection of a new house on Ninth street, there are some members of the assembly who are seeking to secure the removal of the board headquaters from Pittsburg to some western point, particularly Chicago or Omaha. The outcome of this question will be looked forward to with great interest.

HEARING COMMITTEE REPORTS.

The Presbyterian General Assembly Has Them Under Consideration.

PITTSBURG, May 23.—The Presbyterian general assembly continued the consideration of committee reports today.

The report of the standing committee on education, which was read by Dr. Kneeland of Boston, was as follows: The receipts for the year were $97,739.11, with which 1,033 candidates for the ministry were educated. There is still a balance of $460. The report, with recommendations, one of which is for an appropriation of $150,000, was unanimously accepted.

Rev. Dr. Page, chairman of the judicial committee, made a report. Dr. Birch's complaint against the synod of New York was withdrawn and the matter dropped.

Previous to this, Rev. George W. Chalfant of Pittsburg, chairman of the assembly's standing committee on foreign missions, read his review of the report of the board. He paid a very high tribute to the work of the women's boards and the results achieved by female missionaries and missionaries' wives in the field. Another tribute was paid by the speaker to the heroic manner in which the missionaries in China, even those near the seat of the recent war, stuck to their posts. The church's college near Wei-Hai-Wei was actually under bombardment. Work is progressing in Korea since the war ceased.

The receipts for the year were $937,882.12, and there is a deficit of $174,770, of which $102,597 was carried over from last year.

The recommendations, which were numberous and lengthy, urged the re-election of those members of the board whose terms have expired, the election of Dr. A. J. Brown of Portland, Or., to the vacant secretaryship, and that some method be devised to get the 2,000 non-contributing churches to help the board. Churches are urged to increase their contributions by 20 per cent over last year. The week beginning April 7 is recommended as a time of prayer for foreign missions. Dr. Chalfant was thanked and the report received.

Dr. John Gillespie, secretary of the board of foreign missions, made a strong appeal for $1,500 to send Mr. Johnstone of Pittsburg, a graduate of the Western Theological seminary, who graduated this year, to replace Dr. A. C. Good, an Armstrong county boy, who died last year on the west coast of Africa. He is waiting, but cannot go for want of funds. With him will go his finance. Miss Truax, of Allegheny City.

Rev. William H. Hudnut of Point Jarvis, N. Y., rose and was accorded the floor by the moderator. He urged that the money to send the Pittsburg boy to take Dr. Good's place in Africa be raised at once.

The total amount raised was $558 in the collection: $2,000 for the board of missions debt, and $1,610 to send Mr. Johnstone and Miss Truax to Africa. Miss Truax is a graduate of the Allegheny General hospital.

Dr. H. H. Jessup, who has been a missionary in Syria for 40 years, gave his impressions on returning to this country after his long sojourn in Asia. His anecdotes and naive expression caused much laughter. "Faith missionaries," who go abroad with no means of support, were severely criticised.

The moderator announced the following additions to the committee on seminary control, as the assembly voted for on Monday: Rev. Dr. F. C. Monfort, Rev. Dr. W. H. Hibbard, Rev. C. E. Vanderburgh; elders, George W. F. Birch, R. H. Hinckley, Hon. Thomas Ewing and General James A. Beaver. On the committee on Lane seminary the Rev. J. I. Blackburn was appointed in place of Dr. Birch, resigned, and transferred to the control committee.

Elder R. H. Hinckley of Philadelphia presented a resolution, as follows:

"Resolved, That the committee on conference with theological seminaries be requested to inquire into and report to the next general assembly as to the rights of the Presbyterian church in the United States of America in the property now held by the Union seminary in New York, and to recommend what measures should be taken to enforce said rights."

This was offered, he said, owing to some of the statements made by the lawyers during the recent debate on the report of the committee on seminary control.

La Gascogne Reaches Port.

NEW YORK, May 23.—The French line steamer La Gascogne has reached quarantine and reports that on May 16, at 8:30 a. m., when in latitude 42, longitude 49, the piston rod of the intermediate engine broke. The disabled piston was disconnected, and after a delay of eight hours the steamer proceeded at the rate of eight knots. The break was in the rod which was put in at Havre after the accident to the steamer in February last. All are well on board.

Killed by a Dynamite Explosion.

ELKTON, Md., May 23.—On the farm of W. C. Pyle, Mr. Pyle, with a number of assistants, had been engaged for some days in removing stumps, using dynamite cartridges for the purpose. A premature explosion occurred, hurling the men through the air. William Havelow was frightfully mangled and afterward died. W. C. Pyle, Frank Havelow and his son were hurt.

Captain Hedberg's Wife to Marry.

CHICAGO, May 23.—It is announced that Mrs. Hedberg, widow of Captain Hedberg, who was shot and killed a number of months ago by Lieutenant Maney, at Fort Sherman, at which post both of the men were stationed, is to be married June 3 to Damond Stephens, son of Henry Stephens, the box manufacturer.

Naval Officers to Be Courtmartialed.

WASHINGTON, May 23.—The navy department has decided to courtmartial Lieutenant Edward J. Dorn, ordnance officer, and Lieutenant Wilson W. Buchanan of the cruiser Olympic, for neglect of duty leading to the death of a gunner on board that vessel while on the Pacific coast.

Will Appeal to a Federal Court.

COLUMBIA, S. C., May 23.—There has been a change in the plans of the state administration with reference to Judge Goff's decision, that the South Carolina registration laws are unconstitutional. The case will be taken on appeal to the federal court of appeals for this district.

A Kansas Bank Robbed.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., May 23.—Burglars blew open the vault of the state bank of Oneida, Kan., securing about $1,800. The explosion was heard by people living near, but no attention was paid to it until the cashier opened the place for business. No clue.

Bound Over to Keep the Peace.

LONDON, May 23.—After evidence showing that the Marquis of Queensberry was the aggressor in the fight with Lord Douglass, his son, the case was settled by the marquis and his son being bound over each in £500 bail to keep the peace.

Torn to Pieces by Alligators.

CROCKETT, Tex., May 23.—While two young men were fishing in the Neches river, 27 miles from here, their canoe was attacked by alligators and broken up and the young men torn in pieces by the brutes.

Chinese Officials Recalled.

PEKIN, May 23.—The emperor has issued a decree recalling from the island of Formosa, ceded to Japan by the treaty of peace, all the Chinese officials in the island.

The Weather.

Fair; warmer; southerly winds.

PITH OF THE NEWS

Frank Crowley, a printer of Long Bottom, near Pomeroy, O., disappeared mysteriously from his home. He formerly worked at the Enquirer office in Cincinnati.

A child of Thomas Royse, at Portsmouth, O., 7 years of age, succeeded in enticing a mad dog into his father's barn, where the animal was later shot.

Frank Waite, a well-known citizen of Sciotoville, O., has been arrested, charged with stealing logs.

City Clerk Charles M. Goodwin of Terre Haute, Ind., is accused of failing to account for $2,000 license money collected.

There are now pledged to Colonel William O. Bradley 1,024 votes for 351 more than enough to insure him the Republican nomination for governor of Kentucky.

Arrangements for receiving Secretary Carlisle at Memphis and Louisville have been completed.

CARNEGIE FIRM SAFE.

Can't Lose Anything by the Armor Plate Suit.

A GOVERNMENT GUARANTEE.

Money Equal to Royalty on Each Plate Laid Aside In Case Such a Suit Should Prove Successful — What the Defense of the Firm Will Be.

WASHINGTON, May 23.—The filing of a suit in Pittsburg by the French armor firm of Schneider & Co., against the Carnegie Steel company, to restrain the latter from making armor of nickel steel for the United States government without payment of royalty, on the ground of infringement of the patent, held by the Schneider company, caused no surprise at the navy department, where some such news had been expected for a long time. The navy department has gone on record (a most unusual proceeding) in declaring that the Schneider patent is not valid. This was done at the time when the department made its contract with the Carnegie company, in 1892, for armor.

To guard the contractor against such a suit as this, which has now been brought, the contract provides that money equal to the realty on each plate accepted by the government should be laid aside in a depository, and in case a court of competent jurisdiction should find the patent invalid, the money should be repaid in to the treasury. So, as it stands, the Carnegie company cannot lose by this suit, even if the decision is in favor of the French company, and the suit therefore is really against the United States government.

The defense of the Carnegie company will be based on two contentions, first, that the entire Schneider patent is invalid, because a simple alloy cannot be patented under our laws, and, because the peculiar properties of this alloy had been made known to the world before the issue of patents by a publication in the proceedings of the British Iron and Steel institute of 1890, of a paper prepared by Prof. Riley, an eminent British metallurgist.

The second plea of the Carnegie company was that they do not make their nickel-steel in the manner prescribed in the formula of the Schneider patent. This contemplates the admixture of metallic nickel with the molten steel before it is worked into ingots. The Carnegie company uses nickel-oxide, a mineral. This is united with a small quantity of molten steel, forming an alloy with a very high per centage of nickel, which is then used in turn in suitable proportions in the furnaces to make an alloy of the standard per centage, namely, three and a quarter per cent nickel.

As to the suit brought by the Harvey patentees against the Bethlehem company, it may be stated that the United States government is not involved. It has paid a lump sum for the right to use the Harvey process in making all of the armor plate that will be needed for the vessels in sight, and the efforts of the plaintiffs are directed to forcing the company to pay a royalty, equal to $11 per ton, on all of the armor it has contracted to furnish the Russian government. In this case, the defence of the company will be along the same lines in some respects as that of the Carnegie company in its suit.

ASKED TO INTERCEDE.

Venezuela Wants Us to Settle Her Trouble With Foreign Powers.

WASHINGTON, May 23.—The United States has been again asked to act as intermediary in an international complication. This time the trouble is between France and Venezuela, resulting in a complete termination of diplomatic relations between them. The French minister at Caracas recently was given his passports, whereupon France sent two warships to take away her minister and all the legation archives. At the same time, France handed to the Venezuelan minister at Paris his passports, and he summarily departed.

The trouble between France and Venezuela originated about four months ago. A number of Europeans residing at Caracas united in a confidential note to their respective governments, in which they told of the lax condition of the government, and the tendency of Venezuelan officials to avoid the settlement of just claims. The note was signed by the ministers of France, Germany, Spain and Belgium. The Italian minister did not sign it, but sent it to his government "for information." By mischance the "confidential" was omitted from the note, and Italy published it, with the signature of the four ministers, in the Italian Greek Book. Venezuela gave the ministers their passports. Venezuela now asks the kindly offices of the United States.

American Ladies Presented.

LONDON, May 23.—The Princess Louise (Marchioness of Lorne), third daughter of Queen Victoria, held the last drawingroom of the season at Buckingham palace in behalf of the queen. The following Americans were presented: Miss Herbert, daughter of the Hon. Hilary A. Herbert, secretary of the United States navy, who was presented in the diplomatic circle, and Mrs. Draper, wife of Congressman Draper of Massachusetts. Mrs. Neal and the Misses Peck of Chicago were presented in the general circle. Mrs. Curzon, nee Liter, was also presented.

Sound Money Convention In Memphis.

MEMPHIS, May 23.—It is an unusual thing in this country to see a large gathering of business men, bankers, merchants and lawyers representing the capital and business interests of an important section of the republic, called together to discuss a political question from a business standpoint. The most notable characteristic of the convention for the discussion of "sound money and better banking facilities," which will meet this afternoon in the auditorium, is the total obliteration of party lines in its makeup.

Brickmakers on a Strike.

CHICAGO, May 23.—A general strike of brickmakers has been declared, and every brickyard in Chicago is tied up. The fight is expected to be a bitter one, and trouble is anticipated by the police.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Orr's Meteors defeated the Catholic Temperance association club yesterday by a score of 18 to 1.

The sale of seats for commencement tomorrow evening has resulted in almost all the chairs in the opera house being taken.

Col. W. C. Watson returned this morning from a visit to Barnesville and an incidental jaunt westward for Knowles, Taylor & Knowles.

Doctor Ogden has heard nothing more from Wheeling, but still believes that he is in the right. No excursion boats will be allowed to land here.

Mrs. Lizzie Flannegan has moved her household goods to Allegheny, and H. Shaffer has shipped his goods to Alexandria, Ind. No families have moved to the city for several days.

The Typographical union elected officers last night, and among other persons chosen to fill the positions selected John Powell and F. Leslie Trump as delegates to Trades council.

Hanson Skidmore had his right foot injured yesterday by a heavy casting falling on it while at work. He is employed in the moulding department at the Boyce foundry, and his injuries did not lay him up, although he will limp for some days.

A. J. Cassidy, representing a dry plate company of St. Louis, was in town yesterday on business, and in conversation with a party of friends said that his firm each day turned out 5,000 dozen plates. This means that number of photographs by only one firm.

Work on the gate posts at the new school building is attracting no end of attention, the workmen having an audience almost all the time. Strangers seldom pass without asking a question or two, and Liverpool is constantly getting an advertisement out of the structure.

Mrs. Robert Callingwood, whose husband went to the home of his father in Detroit recently, received a telegram to go to that place at once as he was very low. Mr. Collingwood was car starter at the power house, and has suffered for months with rheumatism and it is feared that he cannot recover.

Parties from Cream Ridge have reported a case of destitution to Doctor Williams, but he at once decided they could not saddle it on the authorities here, as the man resides in Madison township. The case was also overdrawn according to the doctor, who heard of the matter before, and knows that some relief has been given.

A young girl whose name has appeared in police circles once or twice was arrested last night near the reservoir where she had gone with a number of boys. She was locked up an hour and after tearfully promising to do better and pleading to have her name kept out of the papers, she was released. Mayor Gilbert promised a workhouse sentence if she was again arrested.

A local paper made itself ridiculous last night by the statement that Miss Mary C. McIntosh, of Cook street, instead of Miss Mary Rayl, had been married to John McIntosh, of Wellsville, in that peculiar "first edition." The happy couple were wedded correctly in the NEWS REIVEW and were serenaded by Manley's band. They left yesterday for a visit at Mr. McIntosh's home in the country. They go to Pittsburg to reside.

Two well-known potters were discussing the condition of trade yesterday, and one recalled the statement in the NEWS REVIEW that foreign salesmen were getting the little trade. The other disputed this vigorously, but the potter who knows the reliability of the NEWS REVIEW stood by his assertion, and a bet was the result. There can be no doubt about the assertion being correct, as the NEWS REVIEW obtained it from the best authority on such matters, salesmen who have been in the city the past few months.

The friends of a young man well known in the city are laughing when they see him these days because of an error he made the other evening. He was busily talking to a young woman whose acquaintance he had just made when he remarked "what pretty bloomers you have." As she was arrayed in an ordinary dress the lady blushed, stammered a few words, and then became indignant. The young man seeing that he had made a mistake hastened to correct it with the remark that he thought the style hat she wore was called bloomers.

Chal Peterson was closer to death yesterday than he has ever been before, and he knew nothing about it until it was all over. Seeing that a wheel of a heavily laden lumber wagon carrying material for the Thomas building had dropped between two iron gutter crossings on Seventh street, he lent his aid to start the wagon. Finding that the wagon could not be moved he stepped back a few inches to rest, and at the same moment a heavy timber fell from the top of the wagon through the space where he had been standing. Had the timber fallen five seconds sooner Chal Peterson would now be a corpse.

Wash Goods.

Don't buy your Wash Goods without looking around. We have the 5c Challies and we have the fine French Organdes. But these are two extremes. Come and see what nice styles we have in Dress Ginghams, Jaconette Duchesse, Dimities, Sateens, Tollards, Chintzes and Wool Challies. We have—don't be in a hurry—look them over, take samples home, wash them, and we venture to say we will sell you your wash dress.

Pequa Suits.

They came in last week. We have had them long enough. Now to know how the ladies like them. We are not saying too much when we say that they are perfect fitting, have plenty of style, and are the proper cut and shape.

Shirt Waists.

The cool weather has made but very little difference in the volume of trade in this department. The style, quality and prices attract the people. No such waists as the JUSTINE WAISTS to fit. Don't buy a waist without style or shape when you can step into our store and for the same money buy a waist that has every advantage that a waist can possess. We are the only people selling the Justine Waist in the city.

Caution about the Use and Selections of Spectacles

"Persons having normal vision will be able to read this print at a distance of 14 inches from the eyes with ease and comfort; also will be able to read it with each eye separately. If unable to do so your eyes are defective and should have immediate attention. When the eyes become tired from reading or sewing, or if the letters look blurred and run together, it is a sure indication that glasses are needed. The lenses sold in the cheap goods are of unequal density and have imperfectly formed surfaces. Continued use of these poorer lenses will result in positive injury from the constant strain upon the muscles of accomodation to supply the defects in the glass."

WELLSVILLE.

PRISONERS AT WORK

Wellsville's Experiment Proves Successful.

SIX TOILED ALL OF YESTERDAY

They Returned at Night Very Tired, and Started Out This Morning Ready to Do Another Day—Thomas Ford Paid His Fine and Escaped the Workhouse.

When it was suggested in council the other evening in Wellsville that the city could do no better than make its prisoners work the streets, there was a smile in the room, but as no other idea was advanced the plan was adopted. A glance would have convinced the casual observer that the members expected the plan to fail, but it seems to have worked out its own success, although the experiment is now only on its second day and has ample time to fail. Yesterday morning six men were taken out, and put on the streets under the eagle eye of Joseph Culp. He knew what they were expected to do, and soon saw that they did their work all right. Not one made an attempt to get away, and all said it was better than staying in jail during the day. They were tired enough last night, but were ready for another day when the guard called them to work this morning. It was the instruction of council that the mayor exercise his own judgment, and send the more serious cases to the workhouse. With this in mind he would not allow Thomas Ford to be taken out, and was preparing to have him sent to Canton when the fine was paid this morning, and Ford was released. The mayor believes the prisoners will keep the streets clean.

FITZPATRICK'S FINE.

He Said He Was Guilty and the Mayor Assessed.

Patrick Fitzpatrick was called before the mayor yesterday afternoon to answer the charge of selling liquor to a minor, preferred by Samuel Colledge. He plead guilty, and was fined $10 and costs, the whole bill amounting to $15.45. The fine was paid and Fitzpatrick was allowed to go. There are no more complaints against saloon keepers at present on the docket, nor is it known that any citizens are looking up cases against them.

Till Sommers Comes Again.

A serious obstacle to the trial of the boys, Sommers and Leith, who were arrested some time ago, was apparent when the case was called before the court this morning. The boys were charged with appropriating brass castings from the Cleveland and Pittsburg railroad company to the amount of $150. A friend of the family went on Sommers' bond and he was released for a hearing today. He has disappeared and his bondsman is searching for him. The police were notified in this city last night, but it is thought that Sommers is now in West Virginia. He is the son of the "rag man," who is well known in both cities. When arrested he made the claim that he bought the brass from Leith, and his declaration caused Leith's arrest. Leith plead guilty to petit larceny and was fined $25 and costs.

The Town Is Quiet.

"I believe that investigation did Wellsville some good, even if it did cost a little money," said a citizen to a NEWS REVIEW man today. "I can see that there is less rowdiness around the saloons, and the toughs seem to be settling down to the knowledge that we have had enough of this thing. I only hope the city officials will keep them under their thumb, now that they have them where they should have been long ago."

Personal.

Carl Dinsmore and Roy Davidson went to Steubenville on their wheels yesterday.

Will Fulton, of New Wilmington, was among the guests at the McClymonds-Andrews wedding yesterday.

Doctor McCurdy and Joseph Warren, of Sewickley, are visiting friends in the country near here.

TIM BURNS IS GUILTY.

the case from the jury on the grounds that the prosecution had not made a case.

Mayor Gilbert—I'll overrule that all right: let the jury try it.

Solicitor Clark—The motion's overruled.

P. M. Smith—Oh, wait until the motion's made.

Mayor—Well, it's overruled anyhow: that's how you put it awhile ago.

The mayor again refused to instruct the jury to return a verdict of not guilty and an exception was noted. Then the witnesses for defense were called. Charles Parker said he was secretary of the club and they bought the beer on Saturday night: when Tim didn't have any ice we told him to put some on it: we paid our first rent the 18th of January: we don't have to buy from Burns: if we have a bottle of whisky from some other place it makes no difference: we go there to drink when we can't drink any place else: we don't drink in the bar on Sunday: at least I don't.

Clark—What do you do when you run out of beer on Sunday?

Parker—Well when we think we're going to have a good Sunday we lay in a pretty good stock. I had a talk with Burns Monday night: he said he would get out of it all right: Burns put ice on the beer sometimes.

Clark—Was not this merely a subterfuge to avoid violating the state law?

Parker—No sir.

The defense rested and the prosecution opened the arguments, scoring the crowd for laughing at what they thought were "smart remarks." The club room was termed the pathway to hell and damnation.

Attorney Smith began with a little sarcasm to the effect that "of course Mr. Burns had bad taste in selecting Black and himself—if tried on that charge he should be found guilty." He put himself on record as being opposed to saloons and ready to vote to abolish all the saloons in the United States. He made a splendid argument.

Attorney Black in his argument said he kept a case of beer in his home all the time, and the police might as well raid his house as the club room in question. Solicitor Clark closed the argument with a convincing speech. He did not deny that the police had probably exceeded the authority laid down in the ordinances, but intimated that they would manage affairs properly. Attorney Smith submitted two statements to the effect that unless the club room was in reality a place where liquor was sold on week days and in charge of Burns the jury must acquit. The mayor read from the statutes what constituted a reasonable doubt and at 5:55 the jury went out.

A HARD-WORKING WOMAN

—sooner or later suffers from backache, nervous, worn-out feelings, or a sense of weight in the abdomen, dragging down sensations and dizziness. It will all come to an end with Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for it's woman's special tonic and nervine; it restores her strength, regulates and promotes all the natural functions and makes a new woman of her. Uterine debility, irregularity and inflammation are most often the cause of the extreme nervousness and irritability of some women—the medicine to cure it is the "Prescription" of Dr. Pierce. All the aches, pains and weaknesses of womanhood vanish where it is faithfully employed. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is therefore just the medicine for young girls just entering womanhood and for women at the critical "change of life."

DR. PIERCE'S FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION

CURES THE WORST CASES.

MR. HOMER CLARK, of No. 108 West 3d Street, Sioux City, Ia., writes: "My wife was troubled with female weakness, and ulcers of the uterus. She had been doctoring with every doctor of any good reputation, and had spent lots of money in hospitals, but to no purpose. She continued to get worse. She was greatly prejudiced against patent medicines, but as a last resort we tried a bottle of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. We had seen some of your advertisements, and Mr. Cummings, a west-side druggist, advised us to try a bottle. We tried it with the following results: The first bottle did her so much good that we bought another, and have continued until she has been cured."

MRS. CLARK.

A CHANGE IN OFFICERS.

New Officials Elected by the Brush Company at Cleveland.

CLEVELAND, May 23.—At the annual meeting of the Brush Electric company Robert Treat Paine of Boston was elected president, to succeed W. H. Lawrence. Mr. Paine is the representative of the General Electric company, which purchased nearly all the stock of the Brush company several years ago. J. P. Ord of Schenectady, N. Y., was elected vice president, in place of C. A. Coffin of Boston. C. G. Smedberg was chosen treasurer, in place of B. F. Miles. Mr. Smedberg was for years the assistant treasurer of the General Electric company. Secretary A. H. Hough, General Manager S. M. Hamill and Superintendent Charles N. Black were re-elected.

No reason was given for the change in officers, those directly interested stating that the matter had no significance. It is generally believed, however, that the new deal is another step toward a closer consolidation of the various interests of the General Electric company.

POLITICS IN OHIO.

William M. Hahn Submits to an Interview In Indianapolis.

INDIANAPOLIS, May 23.—William M. Hahn of Columbus, O., a prominent Republican, is in town. Speaking of the coming Republican convention at Zanesville, Mr. Hahn said:

"The platform will contain a plank on the money question. The declaration of the party in the Minneapolis convention, I believe, correctly represents the attitude of the party today, and the Republicans of Ohio will probably reaffirm the position taken in that convention. Ohio has never taken much stock in the many issues that have come along." Relative to the Ohio Democrats, Mr. Hahn said, that while the present outlook would indicate a split in the ranks in that state, he nevertheless did not belive one would occur. Mr. Hahn expressed the belief that United States Senator Brice would dictate the policy of his party's convention.

Wheat Goes Up In Chicago.

CHICAGO, May 23.—Wheat has rushed up 3⅜ cents and closed with the full advance at 76¼ cents for July. Crop damage reports furnished the motive power and country buyers did the rest.

Two Lives Saved.

Mrs. Phoebe Thomas, of Junction City, Ill., was told by her doctors she had consumption and that there was no hope for her, but two bottles Dr. King's New Discovery completely cured her and says it saved her life. Mr. Thos. Eggers, 139 Florida St. San Francisco, suffered from a dreadful cold, approaching consumption, tried without result everything else then bought one bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery and in two weeks was cured. He is naturally thankful. It is such results, of which these are samples, that prove the wonderful efficacy of this medicine in coughs and colds. Free trial bottles at Potts drug store. Regular size 50c and $1. 5

Old People.

Old people who require medicine to regulate the bowels and kidneys will find the true remedy in Electric Bitters. This medicine does not stimulate and contains no whiskey nor other intoxicant, but acts as a tonic and alterative. It acts mildly on the stomach and bowels, aiding strength and giving tone to the organs, thereby aiding nature in the performance of the functions. Electric Bitters is an excellent appetizer and aids digestion. Old people find it just exactly what they need. Price 50 cent per bottle at T. L. Pott's drug store. 5

Bucklen's Arnica Salve.

The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, tetter, chapped hands, chilblains, corns, and all skin eruptions, and positively cures piles, or no pay required. IN THE HEAT OF YOUTH.

A Novelist's Recollections of Days When Women Were All Queens.

Why is it, I wonder, that we come into the world so ill equipped for its exploration? It seems to me, as I look back upon my youth, that, in a certain way, my senses were fresher and keener then than they are now. And yet they were continually—particularly in the matter of girls—playing the most unwarrantable pranks on me. Some alien fluid, of an intense and fiery kind, got mixed with them and made them subject to all sorts of unaccountable aberrations.

It is a notorious fact that an electric current will make the most excellent compass behave in an irresponsible fashion. And yet, though the disturbing fluid which made my compass worthless was nearly always there, it has guided me somehow with tolerable safety a long distance across the trackless main. And I am not by any means sure that I would exchange it for a truer instrument, subject to fewer aberrations. For I take this very sensitiveness to electric influences to be a proof of its exceeding fineness and excellence. Life would be a horrible dreary affair if these magnetic currents which make the needle tremble and swerve were banished or nonexistent. The dull, dead, stupid sanity which has no sympathy with folly and no gleam of potential madness is no doubt a stanch and reliable rudder, but I cannot forbear questioning whether to the soul thus equipped the voyage is worth making.

Ulysses of old, middle aged though he was, had to stuff his ears with wax lest he steer his ship into the jaws of perdition, when the sirens sang so deliciously, and he did not exactly cover himself with glory during his visits to Circe and Calypso. But what very red blood he had, and how humanely his heart beat in every one of his manifold adventures! He never, like his shipmates, became a swain, and how noble and manly was his bearing in the presence of the lovely Nausicaa!

There is something almost touching to me in seeing the same sentiment which stirs my own bosom recorded thousands of years ago. And, truth to tell, the man whose pulse is subject to no irregularities and whose judgment registers no aberrations in the presence of a beautiful woman is, in my opinion, "fit for treasons, stratagems and spoils."—H. H. Boyesen in Lippincott's.

GIVE THEM A CHANCE.

Rich Girls Oppressed With Wealth Should Have Special Consideration.

My cousin Anthony has been in to tell me of his betrothal of his son Ajax to a young woman of exceptionally voluminous financial prospects. My cousin is not himself a man of large means, and his children's fortunes are still to be made. Nevertheless it was not without an air of deprecation and symptoms of uneasiness that he told me what Ajax had done.

But, I said, seeing Anthony growing solemn, somebody must marry the rich girls. There might be enough rich young men to pair off with them if all the rich bachelors were available, but as long as a large percentage of the rich bachelors insist on marrying poor girls there is no choice but for some rich girls to marry poor men or none. And, after all, if a girl is truly a nice girl, it would be a shame to avoid her because of her fortune. When I was young, I told him, I had really loved a girl, and she had loved me, and had she been of age or an orphan I would have married her if she had owned all New York between Canal street and Central park. Dreadful as it would have been to be burdened with such a load, I would have felt that a true affection might make it tolerable.

I think I was a comfort to Cousin Anthony. He went away looking a good deal less dejected than when he came in. What a happiness it is, to be sure, when one gets a chance to benefit a fellow creature's spirits by changing his point of view!—Scribner's.

Society No Longer Visits.

Calls having become in our busy life of great cities so perfunctory an obligation, many people have seen fit to drop the attempt to make them except in cases where condolence or congratulation is in order. These cases demand the leaving of cards in person only, and so visiting for form's sake is drifting out of vogue. So well is the difficulty of accomplishing all one's visits understood that people of the world do not hold each other to strict account if a season passes without an interchange of cards. They simply meet somewhere and take up the thread dropped when they last met, months before, with perfect good temper.—Mrs. Burton Harrison in Ladies' Home Journal.

She'd Get It.

Miss Elder—Well, I maintain that women can do anything that men can.

Mr. Gazzam—Oh, no, the auctioneer's business is one women cannot go into!

Miss Elder—Nonsense! She'd make every bit as good an auctioneer as a man.

Mr. Gazzam—Well, just imagine an unmarried woman getting up before a crowd and exclaiming, "Now, gentlemen, all I want is an offer!"—London Quiver.

A Very Different Affair.

"Before I start I will fix up a little," said Amy as she got out her rouge pot and enamels.

ITALIANS [illegible]

Baron Fava Causes an [illegible]cation to Be Made In Virginia.

WASHINGTON, May 23.—The department of state, at the instance of Baron Fava, the Italian ambassador, telegraphed his excellency, the governor of Virginia, that it was represented that 125 Italians had contracted in New York to work for the Southwest Virginia Improvement company, as stonecutters, and that Baron Fava was advised that they were being ill-treated, deprived of food, and detained by force at Pocahontas. It was charged the company was endeavoring to force the Italians to work in the coal mines in the place of striking miners, contrary to their contract, and Virginia troops, it was said, were coercing them.

The department has received a telegram from Governor O'Ferrall, saying that he had communicated with the commandant of Virginia troops at Pocahontas, and had been informed by him that rations were issued daily to Italians; that 134 were at work and that 106 not desiring to work, were put upon the cars and returned to New York. The governor said that he was sure these were put under guare simply as a precautionary measure.

There will be a conference here today to adjust the strike between the operators and the miners.

Verdict In a Mine Disaster.

WHEELING, May 23.—County Coroner Fishes empaneled a jury and took exhaustive evidence to ascertain the cause of the explosion in mine No. 4 of the Monongah Coal company, which resulted in the death of four miners and the injury of several others. After the completion of the evidence, the jury was taken through the mine and afterward rendered a verdict that the men came to their deaths from suffocation by smoke from an explosion of powder caused by the shot in mine No. 4 known as a blow-out shot. State Mine Inspector Farr, after a careful examination, approved the verdict.

Sent to Arrest Sooners.

OKLAHOMA CITY, May 23.—United States Marshal Nix sent a dozen deputies into the Kickapoo country to arrest sooners and take them before United States Commissioner Wilkinson, who is stationed at Kickapoo Falls. The sooners are liable to a fine of $1,000 each. It is said that some of the sooners are desperate men from all parts of the country, and that the deputies are likely to have trouble in getting them. The opening occurs today.

The Pope Appeals For Unity.

WASHINGTON, May 23. — Monsignor Satolli, the papal ablegate, has received a copy of a brief encyclical, recently issued by the pope, on the subject of the union of Christendom. It is addressed to all Catholics, and is supplemental to and follows in the same line as the encyclical on the same subject made public about a month ago.

Mob Hunting the Father.

HUNTINGTON, W. Va., May 23.—The body of Gibbie Ringo, who was 8 years old, has been found in the river two miles below here with the side of his head crushed in. His little brother is also missing, they both disappearing together two months ago. Their father is the supposed murderer, and a mob is now in search of him, with a lynching in view.

A Big Deficit to Meet.

GALESBURG, Ills., May 23. — The Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen's convention has decided to have expert accountants examine the books and affairs of the Brotherhood. This step is regarded as significant. One of the greatest problems before the convention is how to meet a deficit of $78,000 in the general fund.

To Decorate the Confederate Monument.

SAVANNAH, May 23.—A car containing 1,000 laurel wreaths and a large quantity of palmetto and pine oranches, smilax and moss, has left here for Chicago, to be used in decorating the Confederate monument on Saturday. One thousand or more magnolia buds will be sent by express.

Suicided Over Disappointed Love.

HUNTINGTON, W. Va., May 23.—Miss Pet Donahoe, the 18-year-old daughter of Major Donahoe of Barboursville, has committed suicide by shooting herself through the heart. Miss Donahoe was well-known in social circles. It is said her act is due to disappointment in love.

Money For the Methodist University.

WASHINGTON, May 23.—The trustees of the American university, the big Methodist educational institution to be located in the suburbs of Washington, have held a meeting at the Arlington hotel, at which $150,000 was subscribed for building Historical hall and library.

Big Failure In St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, May 23.—Louis E. Vogel and Charles H. Gardner have filed suit for appointment of a receiver for the Heckel Hardware company. The capital stock of the Heckel Hardware company is $100,000 and estimated liabilities $80,000, fully covered by assets.

Wild Over Winnie Davis.

HOUSTON, May 23.—One of the exciting features of the Confederates' reunion here was when Miss Winnie Davis appeared on the platform. There was an indiscriminate rush of veterans to shake her hand, and she had to be rescued from the mob.

Odd Fellows Elect Officers.

CANTON, O., May 23.—The grand lodges of Odd Fellows abandonded pleasure for business yesterday, and all the proceedings were behind the wicket. Grand trustees were elected for the ensuing year as follows: W. G. Lupton of Delaware, A. W. Rhoades of East Liverpool, E. A. Saxby of Wood county, L. E. Loechler of Columbus and John Paul of Cincinnati. Other officers will be elected at a later session.

A Murderer Pardoned.

COLUMBUS, May 23.—Governor McKinley has issued a pardoned to Walter Kelley, who was convicted at the March term, 1890, in the Belmont county courts, of murder in the second degree, and sentenced to imprisonment for life. Kelley has been a good prisoner. His crime was the killing of a man named Cotte, who, it is alleged, was intimate with Mrs. Kelley.

Charged With Burglary.

BUENA VISTA, O., May 23.—Ellen McKinney has been arrested here, charged with breaking into the home of 'Squire Henry McCall, in this city. In her possession were found a fine revolver and several other articles of value belonging to the 'squire. Two years ago she broke into the same house and stole the same revolver.

Banker Henry Wick Dead.

CLEVELAND, May 23.—Henry Wick, one of the oldest bankers in the country, has died, aged 88 years. He embarked in the banking business in this city in 1848 and has continued in it since, in the firm of Henry Wick & Co. and the Wick Banking and Trust company.
